

Onsite ACT Bootcamp Information

Instructor Biography: Brian Eufinger

Tutoring Experience:

Brian Eufinger, the co-founder of Edison Prep, has personally tutored over 12,000 students for a combined 35,000+ hours for the ACT and SAT. He has taught over 400 ACT group classes in Edison Prep's home office in Atlanta and is hired by school districts throughout the Southeast each year to do on-site ACT Bootcamps at high schools in GA, TN, AL, and FL. He is a nationally sought-after education expert who has appeared in outlets such as CBS MoneyWatch, The College Solution, ChooseFI and others on test prep and cutting the cost of college. He's spoken on the SAT and ACT at national education conferences and is a frequent podcast guest on college topics. He is also a founding board member of the National Test Prep Association.

ACT Expertise:

Brian still takes the ACT each year to stay current, and scores in the top 0.3% each time, a unique attribute among tutors in the Southeast. This includes the only back-to-back-to-back perfect 36's on the ACT in history and four total perfect 36s. Accountants and other professionals keep current with continuing education each year; tutoring professionals should be no different!

ACT Preparation Materials:

We proudly revise our ACT book each year with new content reflecting ongoing shifts in the tests. We obsessively refine the content, the supporting materials— even the jokes and ad-hoc illustrative stories—with one goal in mind: have the biggest impact possible on the most number of students.

Student Success (Results):

Since Edison Prep's inception, the average student has increased their score by over 4 points, regardless of starting score or homework volume. We have tutored students with starting scores from 10 to 33 and everything in between. Whether for admission purposes, scholarship purposes, or both, our students and their parents have found extreme value in SAT/ACT tutoring. Check out our score increase results here and dozens of testimonials here to see why.

Contact:

404-333-8573 or edison@edisonprep.com